

New course in Hispanic Studies
to be offered in the 2010-2011 academic year

GL/SP 3501 3.00 Contrasting Spanish with English

- ♦ Are you curious about structural differences between Spanish and English?
- ♦ Are you planning to teach Spanish one day?
- ♦ Are you in translation and want to learn more about Spanish/English contrasts?

If you have answered YES to at least one of these questions, then this new course is for you !!!

GL/SP 3501 3.00 Contrasting Spanish with English

This course offers insights to Spanish phonology, morphology, syntax and lexicon as seen through the eyes of an English-speaking learner of Spanish. It proposes an in-depth study of Spanish linguistic structures and emphasizes its implications for language teaching and translation. Language of instruction: Spanish.

Prerequisites: GL/SP 2300 6.00 and GL/SP 2610 6.00, or permission of the Department

Offered in Fall term, Wednesday 15:00-18:00 YH -204

