The York Courses website is designed to provide a central location where information can be obtained on thousands of courses that are being taught and have been taught in the past at York University.

This site contains information about the current course timetables and the current exam schedules once they have been released. Descriptions for courses offered in the past several years are available from the "Course Search By..." link at the bottom of the grey bar on the left.

Before enrolling: you should read through the Important Dates pages to ensure that you are fully aware of the various course add/drop and start/end dates, and the financial impact of enrolling in and dropping courses. Instructions for using the Registration and Enrolment Module (REM) and troubleshooting help is also available on the Enrolment and Registration Guide page; you are particularly encouraged to check out the Faculty-Specific Enrolment Reminders section. If you have further questions contact Registrarial Services.

Course permissions are managed by the department offering the course. If you try enrolling in a course and see one of these messages, please use the Course Contact Directory to determine who to contact.
The spaces in this course are reserved.
The course is restricted from dropping.
The last day to add without permission from the department has passed.

For more information on your Faculty's rules, policies and your program of study, please visit to the Calendars Website.

GL/PSYC 2510 6.00 Introduction to Psychology

 LOGOUT

All About Passport York

Course Description: 1

An overview of the discipline of psychology, which includes sensation and perception, learning and behaviour modification, social psychology, developmental psychology, personality, motivation, abnormal psychology and psychobiology. Note: This course is required for all students who intend to pursue additional courses in psychology at the 2000-, 3000- and 4000-levels. Students must pass the course with a minimum grade of C in order to pursue further studies in psychology. Under exceptional circumstances, non-majors who have not obtained a minimum grade of C in GL/PSYC 2510 6.00 may apply for special consideration to enrol in an upper-level psychology course for which GL/PSYC 2510 6.00 is a prerequisite. This application should be made to the Glendon psychology department Chair. Course credit exclusion: HH/PSYC 1010 6.00.
