About Our Community

The Division Office of Battle River School Division is located about an hour's drive south of Edmonton, in Camrose, Alberta. Camrose is a scenic city surrounded by some of the richest farmland in the prairies. With a population of more than 18,000, the city serves the educational, recreational, health, safety and consumer needs of its residents. This friendly community is also home to many well-known sports teams and entertainment events.
