Glendon’s Gender and Women’s Studies program is committed to the pursuit of excellence in teaching and research on a small bilingual campus with a strong sense of community.
ABOUT OUR PROGRAM

The Gender and Women’s Studies program offers interdisciplinary courses on women and gender that encourage students to develop the practical, theoretical, communications and organizational skills to think, write, act critically and creatively. Students will gain the skills necessary to conduct research and transform the knowledge gained into any future career they may choose, including an ongoing career as a graduate student. Our interdisciplinary courses explore relations of power in the lives of individuals, groups and cultures in a multiplicity of settings and sites locally and transnationally. The rich, interdisciplinary feminist scholarship in women’s and gender studies pushes students to interrogate constructions and intersections of gender, race, class, age, ability and sexuality in daily life, popular culture, the arts, the sciences, politics, society, the economy, etc. We encourage students to engage individually and collectively in the transformative processes of feminist scholarship, practices and politics. The Gender and Women’s Studies program unites academic resources at York in the School of Gender, Sexuality and Women’s Studies bringing together the undergraduate and graduate programs, the noncredit Bridging Program, the Gender and Sexuality Program and the Centre for Feminist Research.

SEXUALITY STUDIES

The Sexuality Studies program examines intersections of sexuality with ability, age, class, ethnicity, gender, gender identity, health, nationality, race and religion. It takes into consideration sexual desires, acts, identities, communities, and movements. This interdisciplinary field explores cultural, economic, geographic, historical, literary, political and psychological dimensions of sexuality, while also investigating sexual dimensions of arts, economies, histories, literatures, politics and psychologies. In addition to a certificate, Sexuality Studies is offered as a bilingual or trilingual international Bachelor of Arts.

WHY STUDY GENDER AND WOMEN’S STUDIES?

Gender and Women’s Studies examines issues pertinent to women’s lives in the present and the past from an economic, political, social, and cultural perspective, with particular attention to how race, ethnicity, class, and sexual orientation have defined their experiences. In fact, every experience can be examined from these angles, and our interdisciplinary approach will allow you to do just that as you complete your degree.

WHAT CAN YOU DO WITH A GENDER AND WOMEN’S STUDIES DEGREE?

Our graduates go on to work in health care, social work, law, women’s shelters, crisis centres, social agencies, women’s advocacy organizations, community centres, non-governmental organizations, government, teaching, and many other areas.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

HOW MANY COURSES DO I NEED IN MY MAJOR/MINOR?

The number of courses required in the major/minor varies according to the program and concentration which you wish to pursue. Specific program requirements are outlined in the York University Undergraduate Calendar. Please review them carefully and if you have any questions, please contact the Office of Academic Services.

CAN A COURSE BE USED TO SATISFY THE REQUIREMENTS OF MY MAJOR AND MY MINOR?

A cross-listed course can be used to satisfy the requirements of your major OR of your minor, but not both.

CAN A SINGLE COURSE BE USED TO SATISFY THE REQUIREMENTS OF MY MAJOR AND MY GENERAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS AT THE SAME TIME?

Cross-listed course can be used to satisfy the requirements of both your major and your General Education requirements. For example, GL/PSYC 3680 3.0 (EN) which is cross-listed with GL/NATS 3680 3.0 (EN) will count for 3 credits only, but it satisfies two requirements (major requirement in Psychology and General Education requirement in Natural Science).

IF I COMPLETE THE MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS FOR MY MAJOR AND THEN TAKE ADDITIONAL COURSES IN MY MAJOR, WILL THE ADDITIONAL COURSES BE INCLUDED IN MY AVERAGES?

YES. All courses taken are included in the calculation of your cumulative overall and major grade point averages.

WHAT GRADE POINT AVERAGES DO I NEED TO GRADUATE?

<thead>
<tr>
<th>BA degree (90 credits)</th>
<th>Honours BA degree (120 credits)</th>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Cumulative overall average: 4.0 (C)</td>

<td>Cumulative major average: 5.0 (C+)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

WHAT DOES ACADEMIC PROBATION MEAN?

Students are placed on academic probation because their averages are below the requirements for their level. Once students are placed on academic probation, they must watch their averages very carefully - obtaining grades of D+ and below while on probation will result in debarment from the University for two years. Therefore, passing courses at the University level is not sufficient. Students must maintain the minimum averages for their level published in the York University Undergraduate Calendar (Glendon section) to be eligible to continue in their program at Glendon Campus.

I WOULD LIKE TO TAKE A COURSE AS A VISITING STUDENT AT ANOTHER UNIVERSITY?

Before applying to become a visiting student at another university, you need to obtain a Letter of Permission (LOP), which is available from the Academic Services, Room C105 York Hall. If the course which you wish to take is in your major, the authorization of your major department/program is required.

WHAT IS THE TRILINGUAL AND BILINGUAL PROGRAM (IBA)?

The international Bachelor of Arts (iba) programs offer a top-quality liberal arts education with an international perspective. Available as a bilingual or trilingual program, the iBA allows a student to reflect on international issues within and beyond their area of specialization. For more information, please visit http://www.glendon.yorku.ca/iba/
