

DECEMBER 3-4, 2015
GLENDON HALL

THE GLENDON
SCHOOL of PUBLIC AND INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS
L'ÉCOLE des AFFAIRES PUBLIQUES
ET INTERNATIONALES
DE GLENDON

Québec Ontario

Where Do We Stand Today?

CONFERENCE of the Glendon Chairs of Québec Studies

After 400 years of francophone immigration to Québec and Ontario, what are the challenges and opportunities? This will be a chance to engage in a deep reflection on the future.

JEAN-LOUIS ROY

Academic, journalist
and diplomat,
President of Partenariat International

BRUNO RAMIREZ

Full Professor,
Department
of History, Université
de Montréal

The Chairs and their guests will take stock of Québec-Ontario relations; they will raise the most important aspects of francophone immigration and of the relations between the two provinces and with the international Francophonie.

DANIEL SALÉE

Full Professor,
Political Science,
Concordia
University

SIMON LANGLOIS

Full Professor,
Department
of Sociology, Université
Laval

NICOLE LEMIEUX

Chief Representative
Bureau du Québec à Toronto

KELLY BURKE

Assistant Deputy Minister
Office of Francophone Affairs

Thursday, December 3, 2015

5:00 pm

Wine and Cheese - Opening Reception

5:30 pm - 8:00pm

Launch of Glendon's 50th Anniversary - Donald Ipperciel, Principal of Glendon
Opening of the Québec-Ontario Conference - Kenneth McRoberts, Director of the Glendon School of Public and International Affairs
Keynote Speaker for the Québec-Ontario and 400th Anniversary Conference - Jean-Louis Roy, First Chair of Québec Studies.

Friday, December 4, 2015

8:45 am - 10:15am

Panel: Francophone Immigration to Québec and Ontario – directed by Daniel Salée

10:30AM - 12:00pm

Panel: Québec and Relations with the Francophonies of Ontario, other Provinces and Acadia; the Changing Francophonie – directed by Simon Langlois

12:00pm - 1:30pm

Lunch

1:30pm - 2:45pm

Panel: Canadian and international Francophonie – directed by Jean-Louis Roy

3:00pm - 4:15pm

Future outlook – Kenneth McRoberts with all the Chairs.

Information and pre-registration by November 29, 2015: www.glendon.yorku.ca/quebecontario